This document is for information purposes only and creates no legal rights. It is intended to provide an informative overview over the standard and extended warranty periods for above products as they result from our standard terms and conditions of sale and our lubricant requirements. Please refer to our standard terms and conditions of sale (document "GRS0062") and to our "lubricants requirements" (Art. No. 22389059B);

¹ The limitation period for claims based on defects for machines shall begin on the date the goods are put into operation, in all other cases on the date the goods are delivered or surrendered, and shall end after 12 months. In any case, claims shall become time-barred 18 months, at the latest, after notification that the goods are ready for shipment. ² Only with the exclusive utilization of our lubricants Primecool/Primecool Plus, Ultralube/Ultralube F or Silol/Silol FG the stated extended warranty can be granted and will extend the periods mentioned under 1). ³ For diesel and electric solutions the warranty extension applies only to the airend.
